

Mental Health statistics

7.8%

of people in England meet the criteria for mixed anxiety and depression

4-10%

of people in England will experience depression in their lifetime

depression is 1 of the main causes of the overall

disease burden world wide

women are significantly more likely to develop a mental health problem than men

33%

16%

however, the annual number of suicides among male patients has been increasing since 2006 in England, while for females the number has fallen between 2003 and 2012.

1/15 people

have attempted suicide in their lives

SOURCE

If you have any question, please contact us at support@piktochart.com